

NOTICE

To: All Claimants of Transportation Liability Insurance Company, A RRG, a South Carolina Insurer

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Court of Common Pleas Fifth Judicial Circuit of Richland County, South Carolina, has entered an Order in Civil Action No. 09-CP-40-1908 authorizing the liquidation of Transportation Liability Insurance Company, A RRG (the "Company") and directing the Director of Insurance of the State of South Carolina, as Liquidator, to liquidate the assets of the Company.

All persons who may have claims against the Company must file a verified original Proof of Claim (POC) with:

Claimant Services
TRANSPORTATION LIABILITY INSURANCE COMPANY, A RRG IN LIQUIDATION
8300 N. Hayden Rd., Ste. A-100
Scottsdale, AZ 85258

Section 38-27-550, South Carolina Code of Laws, provides:

- a) Proof of Claim shall consist of a statement signed by the claimant that includes all of the following that are applicable:
 - 1) the particulars of the claim, including the consideration given for it;
 - 2) the identity and amount of the security on the claim;
 - 3) the payments made on the debt, if any;
 - 4) that the sum claimed is justly owing and that there is no setoff, counterclaim, or defense to the claim;
 - 5) any right of priority of payment or other specific right asserted by the claimants;
 - 6) a copy of the written instrument which is the foundation of the claim; and the name and address of the claimant and the attorney who represents him, if any.

An insured under a liability policy and third party claimants may file a contingent claim for any specific loss or occurrence as to which the insured's liability was not determined as of the liquidation date. Whether or not the third party files a claim, the insured may file a claim on his or her own behalf in the liquidation. The insured's claim may be allowed after consideration of the probable outcome of any pending action against the insured on which the claim is based, the probable damages recoverable in the action, and the probable cost and expense of defense.

Whenever any third party asserts a cause of action against an insured of the Company, the third party may file a claim with the Liquidator.

The Company's obligation, if any, to defend or continue the defense of any claim or suit under an insurance policy issued by the Company was terminated upon the entry of the Order Declaring Insolvency, Commencing Liquidation Proceedings & Granting an Injunction & Automatic Stay of Proceedings (Order). The rights of the claimants to share in distribution of assets, if any, of the Company are fixed as of date of the entry of the Order, June 30, 2009, except as provided by South Carolina Code of Laws 38-27-380 and 38-27-560.

Attached to this Notice is the POC for use by all persons who may have claims against the Company, along with instructions found on the back of the POC. If additional POC forms are required, they may be obtained by written request to Claimant Services at the address set forth above.

As cited above, South Carolina law requires that all claims against the Company shall be verified by a signed statement by the claimant, or someone authorized to act on the claimant's behalf. If the claimant is an individual, then the individual must sign. If the claimant is a corporation, then an officer must sign and identify capacity. If the claimant is a partnership, then a partner must sign. In the event a claim is filed by one person on behalf of another, such as an attorney in fact, guardian, receiver, etc., attach to the POC evidence or explanation indicating your authorization to act. Additionally, the POC requires the claimant signature be notarized.

You will be advised of receipt of your completed POC and your POC number. You will be notified some time thereafter of the Liquidator's decision regarding your claim. If your claim is denied in whole or part by the Liquidator, and you dispute the Liquidator's findings, you will have the opportunity to present your dispute to the Liquidation Court in Richland County, South Carolina, or a forum designated by the Court.

Finally, Translico's web site (www.translico.com) is a source for news and information regarding the ongoing liquidation.
